CALIFORNIA

Dream Big, Start Discovering

Think California and images of Disney, Hollywood and laid-back surfers spring to mind. But there's much more to the Golden State than meets the eye...

SAN FRANCISCO

With its myriad hills, famous crimson bridge and spectacular bay, San Francisco is the perfect starting point for a newbie to California. Highlights include stopping at Twin Peaks viewpoint for stunning panoramas and hopping on a cable car to explore the shops of the iconic Pier 39.

YOSEMITE

Yosemite Mariposa County is known for its picturesque scenery and exhilarating varieties of outdoor recreation, which combine to attract travellers of all ages and interests. Many people first discover Yosemite in the summer, while this is the most popular time of year for visitors, it reveals something extraordinary in each season.

SANTA CRUZ

On the coast is Santa Cruz - a must for top quality eateries and shops along the wharf. Trying out the vintage rides on the Beach Boardwalk is a thrilling way to spend an afternoon, while there are plenty of nearby hikes if you want to get back to nature and see some of the famous California redwoods.

SACRAMENTO

California's Northern region has many hidden charms including Sacramento, the metropolitan hub of a diverse region. Attractions range from the Gold Rush-era Old Sacramento to a lively Midtown area. California's Capital City is also known for its farm-to-fork restaurants, wine region and a host of outdoor activities.

WEST HOLLYWOOD

In Los Angeles, discover the stylish and glamorous neighbourhood of West Hollywood. The most walkable city in California, it is best explored by foot. Stroll along the legendary Sunset Strip, visiting bookstores, art galleries and yoga studios, and enjoy some retail therapy in the Melrose District.

SAN DIEGO

Not to be missed, is San Diego - the jewel of Southern California. Dubbed "California's Beach City", San Diego features miles of gorgeous beaches just minutes from a hip downtown and a number of diverse neighborhoods to explore. The Cali-Baja style food and cultural influences here make for a very special place to visit.

GREATER PALM SPRINGS

Located within the Coachella Valley, just two hours east of LA, Greater Palm Springs boasts an incomparable collection of luxury hotels, resorts and spas, world-class music and film festivals, and nine different cities. With endless sunny days, starlit nights and dramatic mountain views, visitors are able to enjoy a variety of outdoor activities.
