

“Independence of the Seas” has just returned from her make over and she looks amazing!

Escape room

So, what's new? They have introduced the Sky Pad where you can enter a virtual world on their new bungee trampoline experience. You can test your team working skills in the 'Escape Room' with a race against the clock to free your team mates! Let your little ones play in splash away bay with waterslides and splash pools which is perfect for a cool off. For bigger kids why not race against each other in the 'Perfect Storm' two watersides that stand 3 stories high, Typhoon or Cyclone.

Splash away bay

'Laser- Tag' is a great option for those kids big or small who have energy to burn and are feeling competitive.

The rock climb wall

They have kept some of the older activities which a great such as the 'Flow-Rider' for those who like to surf or body board without being on the ocean! Climb the rock wall, bounce a basketball on the sports court, try out your skating skills on the rink or have a go on at the ships own crazy golf course up on the top deck!

The pool area has been updated and has a relax poolside vibe, perfect for sipping a cocktail or two, taking a dip in the pool or watching the sunset whilst listening to a live band.

The perfect storm

Entertainment on board is varied and suitable for all tastes and with the all new 'Grease' musical it'll certainly give you chills! Or the skating experience 'Strings' which features jumps, lifts and beautiful dancing on ice.

The hot topic when cruising is about food and the Independence of the Seas doesn't disappoint, whether you just want a quick bite in the buffet restaurant 'Windjammers' or A la Carte dining in the main restaurant there is food to suit all tastes from international cuisine to English favourites. Looking for something a little special? Then why not book into one of the speciality restaurants for a dining experience like no other, Izumi an Asian inspired restaurant where chefs cook at your tableside! Fancy eating Italian at Giovanni's or grab a burger in Johnny Rockets diner for a great family dinner.

Crazy golf

Promenade View

Not sure which cabin to book? Independence of the Seas offers a large variety of options from interior to ocean-view to balcony or when looking for something extra special the junior suites or Owners suites are just stunning and offer that bit of luxury.

Independence of the Seas will be sailing out of the UK (Southampton) on selected dates this summer price start from £1619pp for a 14 night Mediterranean cruise based on two sharing an interior room or from £1029pp for 8 nights to the Fjords, not cruised before then a taster cruise may be for you with prices from £399pp for a 3 night getaway. Prices are subject to availability and price increase.

*Independence of the seas #myindy
(yes that's me bottom left pop in and say hello)*